UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO EASTERN DIVISION

LET EIV. CULUMBUS

LEWIS R. FOX,

: CASE NO.: 2:19-cv-901

Petitioner,

: JUDGE JAMES L. GRAHAM

-VS-

: Magistrate Judge Kimberly A. Jolson

WARDEN, Belmont Corr. Inst.,

Respondent.

MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT PETITIONER'S OBJECTION TO "RESPONDENT'S OBJECTION TO THE MAGISTRATE'S R & R"

In response to the Respondent's "Notice of Repeat Service of Doc. 10-1," (Doc #13), this Petitioner respectfully request to Supplement his Objection (Doc #12, and Doc #11 by mistake (see letter attached to Doc #12)) to the now revised (original) "Respondent's Objection to the Report and Recommendation" (Doc #10) pursuant to Civil Rules of Fed. Procedure 15.

The issue before this Court is whether or not Petitioner's Claims should proceed as recommended by the Magistrate (Doc #9, ID @ 1051) or to over-rule the magistrate and dismiss per the objection of the Respondent for failure to exhaust (Doc #10, and Doc #13 (revised)).

After review of substantial dilatory short-commings of the State, this Petitioner wishes to redact the "In Lieu of...dismissing Claim #4 without prejudice" as stated in Doc #12 and proceed as Recommended by the Magistrate, notwithstanding, the already filed Doc #12 for the following reasons.

It is now the position of this petitioner that the State has attempted to sabatoge this Petitioner's ability to appeal his post-conviction denial to the State's next level (appellate court). Not only has the State attempted a dilatory defense in trying to overcome the Magistrate's R & R (Doc #9) by filing a "Renewed Answer and Motion to Dismiss [Petitioner's] Post-Conviction Petition," it did so by filing only after the Magistrate's R & R was filed. (See Case No.: 15CR-5585, Franklin County, Ohio, dated Sept. 4, 2019--Five (5) days after the Magistrate's R & R; See also Doc #12). In addition, the State dilitorily attempted to defeat Petitioner's ability to appeal his Post-Conviction by failing to inform him of such decision. As shown through several attached exhibits, the State (through its agents) nor the Court (through its agents) provided this petitioner with the trial court's decision denying post-conviction relief. To prove this matter, this Petitioner utilized the internal mail system called a "Kite," requested the mail logs of all incoming "Legal Mail" coincidentally called "Legal Mail Log." As attached, the legal mail log shows all incoming legal mail of this petitioner starting with: 09/04/19--mail from Office of the Clerk, this is/was the Magistrate's Report and Recommendation; Second, on 09/09/19--mail from the Franklin County Prosecutor, this is/was the "Renewed Answer and Motion to Dismiss..." requesting the trial Court to make a ruling on Petitioner's Post-Conviction Petition; Third, on 09/13/19--mail from Attorney General Yost's Office, this is/was the Objection to the Report and Recommendation--It failed to provide a copy of Exhibit "44" as stated "attached;" Fourth, on 09/23/19--mail from the Office of the Clerk, this was notice of Petitioner's objections to Respondent's Document No. 10. Also attached is a copy of the mailing envelopes and institutional mail passes (showing when petitioner's pass allowed him to pick up his legal mail) of Respondent's filings of Doc #10 and Doc #13. Petitioner would like to draw the attention to the postage for both envelopes--Doc #10, shows a postage of only $0.50; where as, Doc #13, shows a postage of $0.65--proof that Exhibit 44 was not originally attached. Also noticed by the Mail passes, the latest, petitioner asserts was Doc #13, the Repeat Service of #10-1 (which does now include Exhibit 44) was received by this Petitioner on October 1, 2019 (see Pass Date). Petitioner has been forclosed in the ability to perfect an appeal, not by his own doing, but by the State, regardless of intent or neglect. "Ohio does not permit delayed appeals in post-conviction proceedings..." Nesser v. Wolfe, 370 Fed.

Appx. 665, 670. "This Court held in Wright v. Lazaroff, 643 F. Supp. 2d 971, 987-88 (S. D. Ohio 2009), both that failure to take such an appeal is a procedural default - the result of the failure is to prevent the state courts from considering the claim in accordance with their procedural rules - and that Ohio law does not allow a delayed appeal to be taken from the denial of a post-conviction petition." Minor v. Warden, Belmont Corr. Inst., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 42321 (S. D. Ohio 2016). Unlike Minor, this petitioner's failure to file an appeal rest on the actions of the State. Regardless, a delayed appeal cannot be taken, no matter the circumstances. No remedies are available for this petitioner; and as explained to the Magistrate, petitioner request that exhaustion be excused or deemed exhausted instanter.

"Although there is a strong presumption in favor of requiring a state prisoner to pursue available state remedies, the failure to exhaust such remedies is not an absolute bar to appellate consideration of the merits of a habeas corpus petition." Granberry v. Greer, 481 U.S. 129. "([E]xhaustion should not be required 'whenever it may become clear that the alleged state remedy is nothing but a procedural morass offering no substantial hope of relief')." Granberry @ foot note 8 (citing Marino v. Ragen, 332 U.S. 561,564 (1974))(Rutledge, J., concurring). To proceed in the State courts would be nothing more than a "procedural morass offering no substantial hope of relief."

Therefore, it is this petitioner's position that any attempt to return to the state courts would be futile; and in the interest of all parties, the continuance of this habeas corpus proceeding(s) should not fall victim to the State's dilatory tactics, but should proceed onward with all claims.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lewis R. Fox, #733-986
